

Workshop Teilprojekt A5

EU-Network "Europeanisation, Collective Identities and Public Discourses" in cooperation with KFK 'Norm und Symbol' Collective Identity. Methodological and Conceptual Issues

IDNet Workshop
8th and 9th December 2000

Friday, 8th December 2000, afternoon

16.30 - 17.30 Welcome and Opening Session

Bernhard Giesen (Konstanz)

Refreshments

17.00 - 19.30 Concepts of Identity

Chair: Klaus Eder

Allesandro Pizzorno (Florenz)

Identity and Recognition: Individual and Collective

Bernhard Giesen (Konstanz)

Identity as a Concept in the Social Sciences

20.00 Dinner reception for invited guests
(Seestraße 5, Konstanz)

Saturday, 9th December 2000, morning

9.00 - 13.30 Collective Identity after 1945

Chair: Thomas Risse

Wolfgang L. Schneider (Gießen)

Collective Identity and Objective Hermeneutics -
Chancellor Brandt's Kneefall in Warszawa 1970:
Meaning and Media-Responses

Sigmar Papendieck, Valentin Rauer,
Christoph Schneider (Konstanz)

Computer-Aided Qualitative Content Analysis
(WinMax) - Collective Memory of the Holocaust
in Germany after 1945

Coffee break

Wilhelm Viehöver (Augsburg)

Reconstructing Narrative Identities. Problems and Promises of the Narrative Approach to Collective Identities

Kiyoteru Tsutsui (Stanford)

Collective Memory of the Second World War in Japan after 1945

Lunch

Saturday, 9th December 2000, afternoon

15.00 - 19.30 National and European Identity

Chair: Bernhard Giesen

Klaus Eder (Berlin)

Beyond Identity?

Gerold Gerber (Konstanz)

The Social Construction of Liminality and Identity in Border Societies. The Case of Malta

Coffee break

Thomas Risse (Florenz)

When Europe Hits Home: Europeanisation and National Public Discourse

Final Discussion

Dinner